Using an Automobile in Montenegro

The best way to travel in Montenegro by hired vehicle is to rent a car at a registered car rental agency. The prices of rental cars are cheap and affordable and car hiring services have international standards including reliable insurances.

The main roads in Montenegro are in perfect conditions and do have two lanes. The roads are curvy in the mountains, so make sure you rent a car from a company who takes care on all technical issues.
Useful Driving Tips

Road traffic was formerly diverted to alternative road over Trojica hill above Kotor. It is still possible to travel via this very curvy mountain road, so you might travel from Budva to Kotor a bit longer. From this hill you can enjoy beautiful views not only of the tiny countryside villages.

The Vrmac tunnel has recently been completed, which significantly shortens the journey from Kotor to Podgorica.

If you decide to come by your own car please read the following informations.

Car insurance and road tolls:

Tourist, who come to Montenegro by car, are obligated to pay short term insurance for their vehicles at the border crossing. Exceptions include foreign drivers from countries with which Montenegro has a special agreement.
